Without almost noticing, we've already put out 100 references since BCore's birth in 1990. In many formats; CD, LP, 7", cassette... But never before in video, and even less in DVD. But there have been tons of musical videos done for the bands, which needed to be put out together to show another side of our artists. Our good relation with producers like Goldstein Frame Factory gave birth to videos such as Aina's, Maple, Madee, Zeidun or No More Lies. Best videos for Standstill or Tokyo Sex Destruction were made by Victor Rins (Pandeajo); Javier Marquera's work with Standstill's "Skies and a mouse" or Joel Rojas' (former member of emo combo Dies Irae) with Half Foot Outside, and even Pablo Ariel Zareceansky shooting their "90's love" are great job done, like Suara's work for "Two minutes song" after shooting the underground classic documentary "Sant Feliu Hardcore Fest 01". The Sputnik TV team shot a live version of the unreleased "...and a happy new year" by The Unfinished Sympathy, and some friends did the extras with images and sounds from Crossword, Getreal or Shanty Rd. The DVD also includes the mighty short-film "Memories Collector" by Standstill and some shootings from a meal with almost all BCore bands after a BCore festival showcase in January 02. A must for any BCore fan, and a good way to burn your parent's home cinema or your Play Station...
